CONFIRMED SPEAKERS

Prof Luis Salvador-Carulla

Professor Luis Salvador-Carulla is Head of the Centre for Mental Health Research at the Research School of Population Health, Australian National University. He has been an advisor to the Government of Catalonia (Spain), the Spanish Ministry of Health, the European Commission (EC) and the World Health Organisation (WHO). His research has focused on developing decision support systems in health and social policy, including tools for analysis of technical efficiency and benchmarking, indicators for health policy analysis and priority setting in mental health and in disability. He has coordinated the Integrated Atlas of Mental Health Project for mapping mental health services in over 30 local areas around the World. In 2012 he received the Harvard Medical School Leon Eisenberg Award for his contribution in the field of developmental disorders.

Dr Nasser Bagheri

Dr Nasser Bagheri is a Senior Research Fellow at the Australian National University (ANU) and recipient of an Australian Research Council DECRA Fellowship. He leads a spatial epidemiology team and co-leads the Visualisation and Decision Analytics (VIDEA) lab in the ANU Centre for Mental Health Research. His research has focused on chronic disease risk assessment, particularly cardiovascular disease (CVD), diabetes, mental health and dementia. He has a particular interest in spatial variation and quantifying the impact of modifiable risk factors including lifestyle and built environment, on chronic disease.

Dr Daniel Rock

Danny is an epidemiologist, a Fellow of the Royal Society for Public Health and an Adjunct Professor at the School of Psychiatry and Clinical Neurosciences, University of Western Australia. Prior to his current appointment, he held several senior health service executive and clinical research positions, most recently as Deputy Executive Director, North Metropolitan Health Service Mental Health and as director of the same organisation's Clinical Research Centre. He was clinical professor in the School of Psychiatry and Clinical Neurosciences and the School of Population Health, University of Western Australia and co-director of the same university's Centre for Clinical Research in Neuropsychiatry based at Graylands Hospital.

MaryAnne Furst

MaryAnne is undertaking a PhD at the CMHR based on the use of the DESDE-LTC in Australia. She has worked on and co-ordinated several Integrated Atlases of Mental Health, including those of the ACT, Central and Eastern Sydney, North Sydney, Perth North and Western Sydney regions. She has a background in nursing, including mental health nursing.

Adj Prof John Mendoza

John is a Director of ConNetica, a social enterprise recognised for thought leadership in mental health and suicide prevention, comprehensive approach to service mapping, collaboration and integration, stakeholder engagement, suicide prevention training programs, advocacy and research. He has been involved in the development of ten integrated atlases across eight PHN regions in Australia in the past four years. John has authored and co-authored dozens of reports and submissions to public inquiries on mental health and suicide, and has held several executive positions including inaugural Chair of the Australian Government's National Advisory Council on Mental Health, CEO of the Mental Health Council of Australia and CEO of a Commonwealth Statutory Authority, the Australian Sports Drug Agency.

Dr Sebastian Rosenberg

Sebastian Rosenberg is the head of the Learning and Development Unit at the Centre for Mental Health Research at the ANU, and also Senior Lecturer at the Brain and Mind Centre at Sydney University. He completed his PhD in 2016, focusing on the issue of mental health and accountability – trying to tell whether what we are doing is really helping people. Sebastian also works as a consultant with several primary health networks and is on the board of Woden Community Service. His research into different aspects of accountability in mental health continues, through projects with government and other organisations. Sebastian has recently been appointed International Advisor to Universidad Loyola Andalucia on the Refinement-Spain Project in relation to mental health financing systems.
